

A Thoughtful Farewell with care at The Carlton

Be it a full end of life celebration or catering after your service, we support you at this time

Host both the service & reception at The Carlton

At The Carlton, we understand how important it is to honour a life well-lived in a setting where family and friends can gather with peace of mind. Whether you choose to hold the full event here, or prefer the service at a local church or crematorium with catering afterwards, our team is here to help.

We work in partnership with William J Pearce & Sons Funeral Directors so that the practical side is seamless and you can focus on remembrance.

Sometimes known as unattended funerals you have much more control and input into saying goodbye. You aren't governed by booking slots or other pressures.

And your options include having an informal or formal service. You may wish to have the coffin in attendance or the ashes in an urn.

Plus you can decide on elements like the formality of your guests dress code. In essence you can personalise the celebration.

- Private rooms for small to larger gatherings (10–80 guests)
- Quiet, dignified setting just off Wilder Road in Ilfracombe
- Audio/visual ready (TV slideshows, music tribute), easel for a welcome notice, portrait table/condolence book
- Catering from our “Funeral Teas” buffet style through to full lunch or afternoon menu
- Optional accommodation rates for family and friends
- No latest-time pressure: you won't be rushed

Service elsewhere, catering at The Carlton

If you prefer to hold the formal end of life service elsewhere, such as at Barnstaple crematorium or a local church or chapel, we can provide your post service catering.

- We co-ordinate timing with the external service so your reception begins smoothly afterwards
- Quality serviceware
- Full service bar optional
- Modern ambience
- Top rated service

We have a choice of catering options.

- Sit down lunches for close family and friends
- Buffets from fork to finger in style for a wider audience
- Tea and coffee included
- No room hire costs (subject to t&c's)
- Additional elements like remembrance table, video & TV, welcome board, flowers and more
