Unique to North Devon

As part of your midweek business event, we offer a fine dining evening at nearby Thomas Carr at 1873 North Devon's only Michelin starred restaurant.

During the day make full use of your event space at The Carlton, with break out areas. Full catering will be provided throughout your event including English and Continental breakfast options, morning and afternoon refreshments, three course dinner in house, and of course a Michelin dining experience with Thomas Carr.

Showcasing one of North Devon's finest chefs has added real value to our competitive packages and is an ideal way to reward or motivate your team.

Our in house team will support your delegates, attendees and guests 24/7.
